Dear Sir,

Re: Claim for Business Investment Losses
Account #406-634-477
Your Files 4896-8747

Your letter of April 13th, 2006 contained in a box with no return address has now been received by me on April 30th, 2006.

You have denied my claim, and given me until today (May 1st, 2006) to allow me “the opportunity to make any representations”.

Please be advised that:

- (1) I have today contacted the law firm of:
DioGuardi & Co., LL.P.
Barristers & Solicitors
Tax Specialist
1285 West Pender St – 9th Floor
Vancouver, B.C. V6E 4B1

I am setting up an appointment as soon as possible to retain their services to defend my position in a Court of Law.

- (2) Today, I will begin in earnest, my public campaign to challenge the CRA and the Federal Government generally with respect to your procedures and the government policies as these relate to the G.S.T. and income tax rates generally. The Court of Public Opinion will carry more weight than any other Court. Keep your eyes on my website: www.antitaxcrusader.com

I would prefer to keep you posted by e-mail. Do you have an email address? I am looking forward to the Budget Speech tomorrow, especially in reference to taxes.

Sincerely,

John P. Gorman, B.A., LL.B.
